

RESEARCH SEMINAR SERIES: CITIZENSHIP, HUMAN RIGHTS AND DIVERSITY IN EDUCATION

Programme: 2012

Wednesday 8 February 13.30-15.30

The challenges of cosmopolitanism and nationalism in educating citizens in multicultural contexts

Cosmopolitanism, citizenship education and human rights: the case of the Oslo Holocaust Centre
Momodou Olly MBOGE

Educating 'the new Norwegian we': national and cosmopolitan education policy discourses in 21st century Norway
Lena LYBAEK and Audrey OSLER

Wednesday 14 March 13.30-15.30

Children's participation rights in learning and research

Using participative research methods to research children's understandings of human rights and democracy
Anna BOZUK and Natalia RAROK

Human rights and the role of the teacher: teachers as ombudsmen for the rights of children.
Tor Erik FREDHEIM

Wednesday 11 April 13.30-15.30

Teachers, participative citizenship and learning in post-conflict Kurdistan-Iraq

Engaging with teachers in Kurdistan-Iraq to develop learners' communication skills for participative citizenship
Janne MADSEN

Education for cosmopolitan citizenship in Kurdistan-Iraq: an attempt towards equality and inclusion
Chalank YAHYA

Wednesday 9 May 13.30-15.30

Public schools and shared values in multicultural and multi-faith societies

The possibilities and limitations of multicultural and multi-faith dialogue in education
Guro HANSEN HELSKOG

Addressing democracy and diversity in Scandinavian schools
Heidi BISETH